INDIAN CHIEF KILLED.

Lightning Bolt Injured Three Other Show Folks at Chicopee.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 6. — White Eagle, an Indian, was killed and three were injured by a bolt of lightning that struck the main show of the "Days of '49" carnival at Halfway grounds, Chicopee, yesterday afternoon. The injured are Mrs. Belle Lynch, Mrs. Flying Bird and Russell Irwin, all of whom suffered severe shock. The lightning passed over the horse tent, circled Irwin, struck the ridge poles of three small tents and then hit White Eagle, who was arranging the bed in his tepee. The body was found by his gunwale about a half hour after the accident. It was taken this morning to Montreal, P. Q., for burial at the Caughnawaga reservation.

White Eagle, with the other members of the show, was arranging his possessions when struck. A few minutes before he had gone to his tent, after conversing with Chief Flying Bird. The shaft struck Flying Bird's tepee and then passed over to the hickory ridge poles of White Eagle's tepee and followed this. The bolt struck the Indian in the head, charring the face, tearing a hole in the scalp and ripping his clothing. The first indication the others had of the tragedy was when White Eagle's squaw screamed for help.

Its perfect construction surpasses all other cabinets made.

1

Hoosier Shaker Flour Sifter makes flour fluffy and light. Works faster than rotary sifter. Avoids grit or broken wire. Can't wear out.

2

Hoosier Revolving Spice Castor puts the spices you need at your finger tips. No danger of knocking over any or spilling them.
